

SPAIN TALKS FIGHT TO UNCLE SAMUEL

NOTHING BUT A LICKING WILL DO THEM.

Plan For Loans and Armament Made
With That End In View—Her
Officials Make Plain Statements—
Open Hostility Courtied By the Olive Colored Gentlemen.

London, Aug. 15.—Spain is intent upon war with the United States. At least leading Spanish officials pretend to think war cannot be avoided. The last utterances of Senor Canovas show that the chief preoccupation of the government is not the war with Cuba alone, but the coming conflict with the United States.

Few people in Madrid seem to doubt this conflict will come if the Cuban war is not practically ended by the time Mo-

SEÑOR CANOVAS.

Kinley or Bryan begins to govern. The Spanish political leaders partake of the opinion that the time approaches when, if actual war is not on between Spain and the United States, both countries will at least be quite on the verge of it. Up to the present time Spain has yielded to American demands, no matter how unjust they have seemed to Spain, but the moment the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents is proclaimed from the White House, Spanish public opinion, which has been with difficulty repressed, will burst out of all bounds and the relations between the two countries will become strained to the utmost point.

In the Cortes the other day Senor Canovas declared that "the extraordinary credits asked for from Parliament were needed because it was necessary to place the country in a position to answer possible offenses against national dignity."

This is clear enough, but in private, and even in public conversations, the Spanish premier has spoken more plainly. Among other things he has said: "By November a loan of 500,000,000, perhaps 600,000,000, francs will be ready, and most of this money will be spent in preparing the country for possible eventualities."

What these eventualities may be can easily be guessed from the hurry with which the Spanish government is increasing the navy with ironclads of 11,000 tons and with cruisers and gunboats ordered abroad. Gen. Azcaraga, the minister for war, speaking of the 40,000 men who will leave for Cuba in September, of 30,000 to be dispatched in November, and other forces that are to leave at once, if necessary, hints that the purpose is to have ready in Cuba a standing force of more than 200,000 men to fight not merely the insurgents, but an American army as well, should such an army be landed on the island.

Senor Sagasta, leader of the liberal party, has said that he, like Senor Canovas, foresees a conflict with the United States unless the Cuban insurrection is checked at an early date. He considers the loan of 500,000,000 francs insufficient, but he adds that those 500,000,000 can be subscribed in Spain without the help of foreign bankers. He recommends the policy of buying as many warships as possible, no matter what the price may be. Lastly, he fears that Cleveland's proclamation against filibustering expeditions may be a mere stratagem to deceive the rest of Europe.

Canovas, in the cortes, admitted that the insurgents now practically control the whole of Cuba, out of which not another peseta can be wrung, so that Spain must furnish the full snivels of war. For this an extraordinary budget is necessary. The government has already been authorized to raise a loan of 500,000,000 pesetas, but dislike to appeal to the Bank of Spain because if the government did so the country would be swamped with paper money.

Senor Silveira, leader of the dissentient conservatives, rather helped Senor Canovas by pointing out the dangers likely to accrue to Spain from two causes: First, the bad harvest at home; and second, the presidential election in the United States. He asked Senor Canovas what was the probable duration of the Cuban war, and the Premier said the Cubans could never defeat the Spanish army, but it was a weary war, and if the Spanish people did not have the patience to fight it out, then he would leave public life forever.

He was willing to compromise with the opposition if given money enough to fight out the war, for, said he, Spain is determined to exhaust her resources in order to maintain her sovereignty in Cuba.

The Standard had a special dated Madrid, Aug. 9, saying Canovas in several speeches said the Cuban treasury was exhausted and the Spanish parliament must promptly vote all moneys needed to carry on war and this could only be done by approving the whole financial scheme of the government. This was drawn up with the view to provide enough money for the budget and guarantees to secure the support of home and foreign capitalists in floating the loan of $100,000,000, which would be required in the coming twelve months for this purpose.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN SLAIN

Horrible Crime of Whitecaps in Natchitoches Parish, La.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 15.—News of a horrible crime perpetrated by whitecaps in Natchitoches parish several days ago has reached this city. Clement Brosset, a negro, kept a resort near Cloutierville, the inmates being white and negro women. The white women had received frequent warnings to leave the parish, the letters being signed "Whitecaps," to which they paid no attention.

A number of the women were sitting in the yard when a party of men rode up to the rear of the house about 9 o'clock at night and opened fire. Adelaide Etienne, a white woman about 30 years of age, and a child named Suzette Modine, were instantly killed. The Etienne woman was shortly to become a mother. Corinne Modine, the mother of the child, was so seriously wounded that it is thought she will die.

The men rode off in the darkness without waiting to see the result of their fiendish work. The affair was reported to the district attorney, who instituted an investigation, but without obtaining any information that would lead to the capture of the murderers.

Bentley Will Not Withdraw.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 15.—C. E. Bentley, the presidential nominee of the national party, the silver wing of the prohibitionists, arrived here Friday, after having addressed a meeting at Marion, Ind., Thursday night. He was met by a reception committee and was escorted to the White Ribbon house, where a number of prohibitionists called on him. This is one of the few states where the old organization and ticket of the prohibition party elected to go with the silver wing. Mr. Bentley did not care to express his opinion as to who would carry Nebraska, but intimated that he had no intentions of resigning in Bryan's favor. He declared that the Pittsburgh split was not caused so much by free silver as by the determination to strike woman suffrage from the platform.

Activity at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 15.—The work at the headquarters of the national democratic party in this city is being directed to the coming national convention, and organization is going on rapidly in other states, according to the advices received here. Chairman Bynum thinks there will be at least forty states represented in the conventions.

The subject of the attitude that President Cleveland will assume toward the convention is receiving considerable attention. The leaders in the movement say there is no questioning that he is in sympathy with the position the gold men have taken and is favorable to the nomination of a third ticket, but they hardly expect him to give an expression of his views in a public manner.

Ocean Liner Breaks Records.

New York, Aug. 15.—The American line steamer St. Paul, from Southampton, crossed Sandy Hook bar at 9:15 o'clock Friday morning. The St. Paul left Southampton last Saturday at 1:35 in the afternoon, and made the trip in six days and thirty-one minutes. She has beaten the new record made last Friday by her sister ship, the St. Louis, in six day two hours and twenty-four minutes, the record having been previously held by the St. Paul. The St. Paul made her best run for twenty-four hours on June 27, covering 540 knots in that time while in company with the big Cunard steamer Lucania.

No Gold Electors in Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 15.—Whatever the gold standard democrats may do at Indianapolis, it is quite evident that the state of Nebraska will not put up any gold standard democratic electors. It is well-known that Tobias Castor, N. S. Harwood, A. J. Sawyer and John A. E. Ames of Lincoln; D. T. Cooke of Beatrice, and other gold standard men, are opposed to any such move. They contend that such action would help Bryan more than McKinley.

Noted Speakers Expected.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 15.—Great preparations are being made for the convention of the Illinois League of Republican clubs, to be held here Sept. 1. The committee on speakers are in communication with ex-President Harrison, Senator Allison, Senator Thurston, ex-Senator Ingalls, and Governor Hastings, and expect to have a distinguished galaxy of oratorical talent.

Women Can Be Township Treasurers.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15.—Attorney General Moloney has rendered an opinion that a woman can be legally appointed township treasurer. He holds that law provides that no person shall be debarred from any occupation, profession, or employment (except military); that township treasurer is an appointive office, and women can hold such positions.

A BLOODY FIGHT AT CLEVELAND, O.

ROW ON THE STREET ENDS IN BLOODSHED.

Three Men Shot and Another Badly Hurt In a Row Between the Brown Company Strikers and Non-Union Men—List of Injured—Situation at Berea, Ohio.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 15.—Three men were shot and one badly hurt in a conflict which occurred Friday evening between a party of the Brown company strikers and several non-union men who were going home from the works. Two of the wounded men are non-unionists, the third is a striker and the fourth a spectator. The names of the injured are:

J. W. CALDWELL, non-union; shot in the thigh and struck on the head with a "billy."

GEORGE PLUMB, non-union; shot through the abdomen; will probably recover.

THOMAS EVANS, a striker; shot in the back, badly hurt and may die.

WILLIAM LAWREY, a bystander; struck in the face with a telegraph insulator; badly hurt.

The trouble occurred nearly two miles from the works, at the corner of Wade Park and East Madison avenues. A number of non-unionists live in that vicinity, and eight or ten of them were going home from work together. Just as they turned the corner a crowd of strikers attacked them. Stones were hurled, and George Plumb, one of the non-unionists, pulled a revolver and fired. Plumb was then shot, as he says, by Henry Snell, a striker. The firing became general, at least twenty shots having been exchanged.

The fight lasted but a few minutes, and as soon as it was over the strikers disappeared. The police had not anticipated any trouble in this quarter, and it was some time before they had arrived on the scene and began an investigation. Ambulances took the injured men to hospitals or their homes, and the search for the men who did the shooting was begun.

On Monday last Mayor McKisson, acting on the promise of the strikers to maintain order, as expressed in their suit filed in common pleas court asking for the withdrawal of the militia from the Brown works, dismissed the troops from guard duty. Since then there has been no disorder. A strong force of police has been put on duty in the vicinity of the works, and no attempt to molest the non-union men has been made. The workmen have been going to and from their work without escort. Several of them live in the vicinity of Wade park and East Madison avenue, in the eastern end of the city, and they have been in the habit of going to work and coming home in a body.

The affair has stirred up a very ugly feeling, and the troops will probably be called out to prevent any more clashes between the opposing forces.

The Brown company strike has been extended to Pittsburgh. The strikers learned a few days ago that the Schafie Foundry and Machine Company of Pittsburgh was doing work for the Brown company, and they sent a representative there. He sent back word that he would probably succeed in getting the patternmakers, machinists and iron molders of the Schafie company to strike.

NEARLY KILLED THE FOREMAN.

Polish Quarryman Murderously Assaults Amos Morley at Berea, O.

Berea, O., Aug. 15.—A foreman in quarry No. 7, Amos Morley, was nearly murdered Friday by George Bownskonski, one of the Polish quarrymen who recently went out on a strike. Morley is hated by the former strikers, especially those for whom work has not yet been found. A few days ago dynamite was discovered under his house. Friday Bownskonski applied for work, and, being told there was none, struck Morley on the head with a shovel, knocking him into deep water. Morley tried to climb out, but the Pole held his head under water with the shovel, and would have drowned him had not some of the quarrymen ran to his aid. Bownskonski fled, but was later arrested without resistance.

Will Meet at Boston.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 15.—The gold element in the democratic party of this state has issued a call for a state convention of democrats to be held at Horticultural hall in this city on Tuesday, Aug. 25, to form a state organization of democrats opposed to the Chicago platform and nominees, and to elect delegates to attend the convention of the national democratic party at Indianapolis.

Several Lives Lost.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The F. F. V. train, limited, on the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, which left Washington at 11:37 p. m., ran into an open switch at Ravensworth, Va., about 12:15 this morning, and four of the six passenger coaches were badly wrecked. Several lives are reported lost and fifty or twenty passengers injured. There is no telegraph station at Ravensworth, and details of the disaster are not obtainable. A wrecking train with several physicians on board has gone to the scene of the wreck.

THE TRADE REVIEW BY DUN & COMPANY

EXTREME HEAT AFFECTS BUSINESS BADLY.

This, and the Especially Gloomy Government Crop Report, Has Made All Trade Bad—Comparison With One Year Ago—The Week's Failures in Contrast.

New York, Aug. 15.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

"An extraordinary spell of deadly hot weather has affected trade throughout the country, and in the east speculative feeling was somewhat affected until Thursday by apprehension of the possible influence of the Bryan meeting. With cooler weather there came also on Thursday perception that the meeting would not affect business unfavorably. But other conditions were not stimulating. According to government reports, the crops have sustained serious injuries. Labor difficulties extend and the closing of establishments for want of work and the refusal of commercial loans by banks checked operations in many branches of industry and trade. The week, therefore, closes, as the last week did, with domestic business unusually dull for the season. Measured by clearing house exchanges it was 50 per cent smaller than last year and 15.5 per cent smaller than in the same week of 1892, the last year of full business at this season.

"The government crop report for August was so gloomy that a great rise in prices would have followed if it had been entirely credited. Cotton advanced a sixteenth because of continued reports of injury. It is wise to remember that the government accounts were based on returns prior to the fearful spell of heat, and hence may be more nearly correct than they were when prepared. But official and unofficial estimates of a great decrease in the wheat yield are confronted with a movement from the farms of 3,560,741 bushels for the week, against 2,295,242 last year, and it scarcely seems reasonable to believe that 20,700,000 bushels would have been marketed since July 1 this year against 11,625,262 last year, if the yield had been smaller with the price 9 cents lower than a year ago. Atlantic exports (four months) 1,409,780 bushels against $89,201 last year are not enough to account for the difference.

"No one questions the probability of a very large yield of corn. But the advance of cotton to 8.12 cents caused large selling and a reaction, although a turn upward on Friday took the price to 8.19 with moderate trading.

"Iron production was reduced 20,764 tons weekly in July, and has been further reduced since Aug. 1, while unsold stocks increased 26,192 tons in July. The stoppage of a large share of the Connellsville coke works and of many lake iron mines is a fair indication that the two combinations do not believe anything could be gained by reducing the prices of materials, and the main difficulty is obviously the extreme narrowness of demand for finished products, which is so slack that most transactions are at some concessions even from the current low prices. Copper receded to its quotations before last week. Tin has been sold below current quotations at $13.35, and with sales of 800 tons lead weakened to $2.75.

"The woolen manufacture makes little change, with not more than a third of the machinery now running, and the demand for goods does not improve, although prices of some important grades have been further reduced. Sales of wool at the three chief markets for two weeks have been 4,791,000 pounds, against 14,473,150 in the same weeks of 1894, and 16,430,302 in the same weeks of 1892. Nor has improvement appeared in cotton goods, although the curtailment of production for some weeks has been great.

"Failures for the week have been 293 in the United States, against 196 last year, and 36 in Canada, against 38 last year."

SELECT HEADQUARTERS.

Democratic National Committee Decides on Chicago.

New York, Aug. 15.—The democratic national committee has decided practically to establish headquarters in Chicago. This is in accordance with Mr. Bryan's strong wish, in which he is backed by Gov. Stone of Missouri and others.

Chairman Jones has decided upon the following members of the campaign committee and they are likely to be announced to-day: Gov. Stone, of Missouri; J. G. Shanklin, Indiana; Daniel J. Campau, Michigan; C. A. Walsh, Iowa; John R. McLean, Ohio; Clark Howell Jr., Georgia; J. D. Johnson, Kansas; J. J. Dwyer, California. Gov. Altgeld of Illinois may be added to the committee, but if not some one named by him to represent that state will probably be appointed.

NEARLY TO THE POLE.

Dr. Nansen Says He Needed Only More Dogs and Canoes.

Vardoe, Norway, Aug. 14.—Dr. Nansen says that the Fram drifted with the ice in a westerly direction to 84 degrees and he expects the vessel will eventually arrive at Spitzbergen. He adds that wherever they penetrated they found the ice broken. Large patches of water were also found, 3,800 meters deep. Below the depth of 190 meters the water was appreciably warmer, probably owing to the Gulf stream. Rocky scars, of which the explorers had no previous knowledge, prevented entrance into the Olenek river for days. In consequence of the scarcity of dogs with the expedition, Dr. Nansen was compelled to turn back at 86.15. He adds that if he had been provided with a sufficient number of dogs and canoes the pole would have been reached.

The land voyage was most arduous, but extremely available scientific results were obtained. In 1895 Dr. Nansen reached the north coast of Franz Joseph Land and built a stone house in which he lived the whole winter. The Jackson-Harmsworth expedition arrived at Franz Joseph Land the following spring.

Cooper, Gardiner and Butler Win.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 15.—Friday Tom Butler won the one-mile bicycle race. His winning was a surprise to the grand stand, which could not understand at first why Cooper or Bald did not lead triumphant march across the tape. But the racing men and the followers of the circuit expected just such a thing of Butler, and when it really happened nobody tried to check the enthusiasm. In the one-mile open professional, Arthur Gardiner rode side by side with Walter Sanger and sprinted a foot ahead of him at the tape, making a new single paced mile record in 2:01. Tom Cooper clung to his determination to enter none but championship events, and won both the one-third and one-quarter mile championships.

Michigan Gold Men.

Lansing, Mich., Aug. 15.—The provisional state committee of the gold democrats of Michigan held a prolonged meeting here Friday. All the members of the committee were enthusiastic, reporting that the sentiment for a straight democratic ticket was daily increasing in all parts of the state, and expressing the opinion that such a ticket would poll a surprisingly large vote in Michigan. After a protracted discussion, a call for a mass convention to be held in the city of Lansing on Wednesday, the 26th day of August, at 12 o'clock noon, was issued.

Twin City Encampment Opens.

Champaign, Ill., Aug. 15.—The Twin City Chautauqua encampment opened at Crystal Lake park Friday morning for a session of ten days. There were fully 3,000 people on the grounds. Large crowds attended the evening exercises, which were given up almost wholly to music. The management has arranged for the entertainment of 10,000 people today, when W. H. Harvey of Chicago, and Edward Roseway of Omaha, debate the silver question.

Name Is Misleading.

Indianapolis, Aug. 15.—It is said Indianapolis of the free silver to keep the national democratic party (gold) from being represented on the ballots in Indiana, if it is possible. The gold standard democrats say they cannot be left off the ticket if they show they have a party to the ticket that the United States party chooses a new name.

Fusion in Washington.

Ellensburg, Wash., Aug. 15.—After an all-night session of the joint conference the populists submitted a proposition which was approved by the silver republicans.

Chris Hanson was arrested this morning while en route with two loads of fish. The fish were sold at public auction and Hanson was held for trial.

Mitchell For Bryan.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 15.—A political sensation was caused here Friday by the announcement that Senator John L. Mitchell would support Bryan and free silver. It has been claimed all along that he would stand by his colleague, Senator Vilas, and be outspoken in his repudiation of the Chicago convention. The announcement of his position comes from him direct by wire, and is as follows:

"Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 14.—The Chicago convention was strictly regular in its organization. It was correct in its proceedings. It adopted its platform and nominated its candidates by decisive majorities. I hold a national office through democratic votes, and am bound in honor to accept the conclusions of the national democratic convention. Kicking, bolting and complaint have no place in my philosophy. When I fight it is before convention, not after. I shall support the Chicago nominees."

Five Girls Burned.

Marinette, Wis., Aug. 15.—A house of ill-repute on the Peshtigo road was burned to the ground Friday, and two girls were terribly burned and three others badly scorched. The house is two miles from the city. The fire caught from the cook stove and the girls, in light attire, could not get out of the building in time to save themselves.

Illinois Gold Convention.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Ex-Mayor Hopkins of the national democratic executive committee, spent the entire day Friday completing arrangements for the state convention which is to be held in Chicago Aug. 25. "The committee received from the state," said the mayor, "a statement that the convention will be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held under democratic auspices, which were given up almost wholly to music. The management has arranged for the entertainment of 10,000 people today, when W. H. Harvey of Chicago, and Edward Roseway of Omaha, debate the silver question."

Cochran May Debate with Bryan.

New York, Aug. 15.—W. Bourke Cochran is anxious to try his hand in a joint debate on the silver question with Mr. Bryan. Mr. Cochran's coming speech at the "Honest Money" democratic league meeting at Madison Square garden next Tuesday night can be considered in that light. The Central New York Chautauqua assembly has sent a communication to the headquarters of the "Honest Money" league, proposing to arrange for a joint debate of the silver issue between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cochran at Assembly park at such time as may be mutually agreeable to the gentlemen referred to.

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

THE TIME TO PRESERVE FRUIT.

Season Is Early and Fruit at Very Low Prices.

Peaches, pears, plums and apples are coming into the market in quantities heretofore unknown, and they are often selling at figures that do not pay for the picking, baskets, packing and cost of transportation.

Throughout Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky the fruits are ripening alike. The season in the north is two weeks to a month early, and the different localities are consequently sending products at the same time, which would be ordinarily distributed over several weeks to general profit. The consequence is that the season will be over thirty days earlier than usual, and when the housewife thinks she is ready to begin preserving, the fruit will be gone. The canning concerns are, too, unprepared to take advantage of the present market, as the times are out of joint.

The California fruit market is also seriously affected. While the fruits are arriving in good shape, there is no re-shipping, and the prices have dropped one-half, but the outlook for the product of the Pacific coast states is brighter, for, the sooner the season of the middle states product closes, the demand for California fruit begins.

Commission merchants are hoping for relief from housewives who preserve their own fruit. They believe that if she realizes that the season is so far in advance of past years, and that when she is prepared as in the past to begin this work, the fruit will be gone, she may be willing to withstand the heat in order to take advantage of the low prices, and not take chances of doing without the winter delicacies.

It is believed the same conditions will rule in the grape market. While the season is two or three weeks earlier than usual, Michigan, Ohio and New York are ready to market their product. Ordinarily there is a difference of a week or ten days in the ripening of grapes grown in these localities, which enable the dealers to clean up the earlier shipments and prepare for the later ones.

THE LATEST FAD IN DANCING

Tandem Waltz Now Being Introduced in The Effete East.

To be strictly fine de siecle, if you are a devotee of Terpsichore you must learn how to dance the tandem waltz—it is the very latest fad in dancing. There is no more slow, languorous dancing on a handkerchief's space. The young man who held his partner close as if he dreaded robbery is out of date. The "tandem" craze has struck the waltz. The "tandem" has its advantage. In both the girl and the young man move in the same direction at the same time. Instead of a young man holding out his hands and the girl tucking her head under his chin, she gives him the cold shoulder. For the girl whose only charm is the sloping lines of the neck of the neck and the fetching little looks tickling the white nape of the neck this is especially comfortable.

The girl stands back to her partner, who holds her right arm extended. The girl's left hand is put behind her. This does away with what prim people have called unmitigated temptations of the waltz. There is no chance for the young man to clasp the girl's slender waist. Faces are not dangerously close, and eyes—oh! eyes that look into other eyes any kind of tender looks. The "tandem" takes all the flavor out of Strauss waltzing. However, it is one of the distinct novelties. Here's one of the advantages—the tandem waltz will never ruin the back of the waist of a girl's dress.

MRS. FORD SELLS SIX SONGS.

Janesville Poetess Goes to Chicago to Have Verses Set to Music.

Mrs. O. C. Ford goes to Chicago Monday to visit her daughter. She will also have six of her poems set to music. The songs are entitled, "Sweet Yesterday," "Only For Mama," "No Blossoms," "Love's Pleasings," "McKinlay Mazurka," and "Witches' Waltz." The first named is as follows:

Dear Yesterday.

Dear yesterday, sweet yesterday,
My soul found its desire;
Our hearts and hands love your commands,
Midst passions' holy fires.
O, holy hours and fragrant flowers,
Our bliss was so complete;
Now darkest night has cast its gloom
Upon us, O, my sweet.

CHORUS.

I care not what the morrows bring;
They're nothing to compare
With that sweet yesterday so dear,
That made all earth so fair.
Dear yesterday, sweet yesterday,
To be once more with thee,
Can it be true, through all the year,
One day like that I'll see?
Then may I die, why wish to live,
All days as dark as night,
With just the memory of that one,
To make the others bright.

BACKACHE.

A Very Significant Indication of Organic Derangement.

The back, "the mainspring of woman's organism," quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in joints, and weight in lower part of body, blues and "all gone" feeling, that nature requires assistance, and at once. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for twenty years has been the one and only effective remedy in such cases. It speedily removes the cause and effectually restores the organs to a healthy and normal condition. Mrs. Pinkham cheerfully answers all letters from ailing women who require advice, without charge. Thousands of cases like this are recorded.

"I have taken one-half dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has relieved me from all pain. I cannot tell you the agony I endured for years; pains in my back (Oh, the backache was dreadful) and bearing-down pains in the abdomen extending down into my limbs; headache and nausea, and very painful menstruations. I had grown very thin, a mere shadow of my former self. Now I am without a single pain and am gaining in flesh rapidly."—MATTIE BURNS, 1561 Dudley St., Cincinnati.

We Never Guess.

When we say we are selling goods cheap est we are not guessing. We know it.

When we say in simple English: "You never saw goods so low before," we don't surmise. We are positive!

When we say that today we are offering the best Wash Goods bargain of the whole season we are not trifling with the truth.

Dainty Dainties at 7 1-2c-

Some of them are of a twenty cent retail value, but a very recent visit to the market landed them at our doors at our own price, and they are yours at just a trifle more.

There are plain lace stripes of pink, blue, lavender and cream and many beautiful designs and patterns which have not been shown in Janesville's market this season.

Just think of the price—7½ cents, and 10 yards is a pattern; 75 cents for a nobby summer dress.

There are 40 pieces in the lot and you will be agreeably surprised when you see them.

Take us at our word and come prepared

Shirt Waists--

The 39 cent price is fast clearing them out and of the 20 dozen we had at the start have are gone.

Children's Wash Dresses

of print and of gingham; ages 2 to 10, and prices from 23 cents up. Don't be able to make them up when you can buy them as cheap as we sell them.

PAVING FIGHT IS ON AT BELOIT

TWO FACTIONS CANNOT AGREE ON PLANS.

Crowd That Want Blocks Used Instead of Crushed Stone and Brick, Hire Attorney McGowan to See What They Can Do—The Contracts Are Let.

Beloit is in the throes of a paving war, and a Janesville attorney has been appealed to in hopes of straightening the matter out.

It was this way: The Line City council decided that something must be done to improve the highways, and paving was settled upon. But just what kind of pavement was a question. However, they advertised for bids, and let a contract to a Rockford firm. The decision was to fix the center of the street with crushed stone, and lay the gutters of brick. That was the plan upon which they got figures. After the contract was let, however, the fun began. Some of the people did not want pavement of any kind. Others wanted blocks. Still others wanted brick. Others still favored macadam. But the council's edict "went," and the bid of the Rockford concern was accepted.

Then came trouble. The people who were against the project got together, and it was found that block pavement was the best thought of among them. They said that blocks could be laid cheaper, and that they would be more satisfactory. They did not know just how to proceed to prevent work under the contract—in case they decided to go to law—so they engaged Attorney E. D. McGowan, of this city, to look into the matter. City Attorney Rood is acting for the council. A suit is likely to be begun.

IT is easy to make claims to attract attention by extravagant statements! But, a claim is not always the statement of a fact, and what seems an extravagant statement weakens under a cool analysis, unless fully substantiated! For that reason it would be absurd for us to claim to show the largest assortment of new fall dress goods if we did not have the largest assortments of new fall dress goods to show. But, as we have the largest line of new fall dress goods we can well afford to sound our trumpet loud and long. Our largest stock of new fall dress goods awaits your inspection. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

J. M. BOSTWICK & SONS' accustomed enterprise is shown in the dress up of their large center window. Today being the occasion of the Scotch games, it is a fitting time to make a display of dress goods, etc., Scotch in their nature. The collection of plaids displayed by this firm is as interesting to many women as the most beautiful landscape. It is but seldom that such an array of lovely effects in plaids can be seen. The window is really a work of art. The color harmony is perfect, and bespeaks no mean knowledge of the art of blending colors. The window will not be changed for two three or days.

LET THE BOYS GO WITH FINES OF $5

YOUTHFUL TILL TAPPERS ARE SET FREE.

Judge Phelps Gives Willie Brooks and Frankie Moran a Reprimand, and Discharges Them On Payment of the Fine and Costs—Other Court Proceedings

Two lads who will probably hereafter be better boys walked out of the municipal court this morning. They were Willie Brooks and Frankie Moran, the youngsters who "tapped the till" at F. F. Pierson's store some days ago. The lads, it will be remembered, were arrested soon after the offense, and a charge was preferred against them in the municipal court. They pleaded not guilty, and adjournments had carried the case along until today, when the two boys appeared before Judge Phelps in the municipal court. They were fearful and penitent, and withdrawing their pleas of not guilty, owned up to the charge. Judge Phelps then gave them a severe reprimand, and fined them $5 and costs each, which was paid. Neither of the boys were represented by a lawyer, but Brooks' grandmother and aunt were in court, while Moran's father sat by him. District Attorney Jackson appeared for the state.

D. Q. Stark of Shopiere was fined $5 and costs this afternoon in the municipal court, for slapping William Hurd, also of Shopiere. Mr. Stark pleaded guilty to the charge and settled the expense.

Mrs. Benjamin B. Rexford has been granted a divorce from her husband by Judge Bennett.

"Sorry, I'm sure," smilingly chirped Mr. Bimley, as the man put the bill grumblingly back in his pocket, "but if you will call around in another month I think I can arrange it."

The man shook his head. "I wish you was a chicken," he growled, backing down the steps.

"Inasmuch as to wherefore?" asked Mr. Bimley, as a momentary gleam of interest passed over his countenance.

"Bees!" you would then shell out in three weeks," retorted the man, as he wearily put one foot before the other, and so vanished from sight. —N. Y. Recorder.

Not Like Father's.

"These biscuits," said Mrs. Newoman, while her faithful husband looked half fearfully, "are not like the ones my father baked."

The reaction was too great. The overjoyed husband had fainted. —N. Y. World.

He hesitated. "I cannot deny," he said, truthfully, "that I am influenced by the money that I have put into you." —Chicago Tribune.

A Shock to Her Resolution.

"It's too bad," said the young woman who wants to be new.

"What's the trouble?" asked her mother.

"Just as soon as we've made up our minds to show the world that we are not the weak, timid creatures we have been pictured, the announcement comes that the trees are full of caterpillars this year." —Washington Star.

Wanted More Variety.

They paused before the cigar stand. "And so you don't like Sniggers?" Well, well. Why, I think him the best sort of a fellow. He's always the same. You know what he'll do in any case. There's no affectation about Sniggers. He's always himself."

"Yes, that's what I object to." —Chicago Tribune.

Love's Duplicates.

I love you, love you, love you, dear. More than my tongue can tell! In all the land, both far and near, There's none I love so well. And though to others, now and then, I say these words, 'tis true, How can a fellow help it when They so resemble you? —L. A. W. Bullefin.

Didn't Starve.

"Well, Minnie, did you take good care of the animals during my absence?" "Yes, my lady, excepting the cat, which I forgot to feed."

Janesville's retail clerks will soon be eligible to wear "the union label."

General Organizer H. M. Whittaker, of this city, is now at work getting things into shape to organize a branch of the Retail Clerks National Protective Association, the necessary documents having arrived in Janesville yesterday from the national headquarters of the association at Cripple Creek, Col. A meeting will be called soon at which officers will be elected, and the organization perfected. Officers will be elected and the final arrangements made. The new association, it is expected, will have at least two hundred members as both men and women are eligible. The dues are small and the other expenses light. The object of the association is to promote the interests of the members. It is also said that one of its aims will be to secure early closing. The plan that is now being talked of by those interested, is the idea of having the stores close every night except Saturday as is done in the cities. One open night a week, many clerks claim is enough for all practical purposes.

THE Outing club's moonlight excursion as the guests of Captain Buchholz will occur Monday evening. The boat leaves at 7 o'clock sharp.

MOONRISE SERENADE.

Moonrise and a mellow sheen
All the slumberous hills are steeping.
Wake, my sweet one, nor be sleeping
Through sweet Cynthia's softest phase—
Wake and rise and swiftly glide
To thy lattice, sweet, for, oh,
One who woos thee for his bride
Sighs here below!

I love you! I love you!
My heart, I must confess,
Can no more love you more
Than it can love you less.

Moonrise! Through the casement blind,
Lo, the golden love-light streaming—
Lady, lady, past my dreaming,
Thou art kind, most kind!
He who heard thy garment glide
Swiftly o'er the happy floor,
He who wooed thee for his bride
Sighs here below!

I love thee! I love thee!
My heart—oh, happiness!
Can never love thee more,
Need never love thee less.

SHE RODE FOR FUN.

"Jim," said I, breaking in upon his ditty, "what was the yarn you were going to tell about the time you engineered that English hunting party through the Bear Paw mountains?"

We were riding along the trail which stretches its serpentine length at the feet of the eternally grand old Rockies between Forts McLeod and Calgary on a bright, warm afternoon in January. When they have a "chinook" out there, sporting in its rude, boisterous, yet withal genial fashion, through the deep defiles of the mountains from over the Pacific, with a rumble like Niagara at a distance and a force which makes you button your coat up tightly to keep it from blowing off, the snow soon vanishes even in midwinter, and the thermometer jumps from "40 below" to "temperate" so suddenly that you wonder if the sun has not wheeled himself several degrees out of his normal course at such a season or the breath of an approaching prairie fire is not fanning your cheek.

The singer gave the wad of tobacco in his jaw a twist with his tongue and aimed an amber jet at a "bulldog" on his horse's ear before turning upon me a pair of glistening eyes, with black points set in saucers of milk, a short, impudent nose and a rather weak mouth, round the corners of which lurked a musing smile. Then, after a pause, he said:

"Oh, yes. Well, Littlefield was the chief of the outfit, an he hed his wife along—fine, spankin woman, good to look at. There was another Englishman—a great shot—called Wells, an a nigger cook, a big, slashin buck, but with no mo' sand in him than a pusillanimous jack rabbit. Lord, how we did scare that poor critter! His teeth used to chatter like a squirrel's; it's a wonder he didn't shake 'em out of his big woolly head." Fraid of his own shadow after night, an he'd make one any time, even if it was pitch dark, he was so infunful buzzard. You might as soon git this here buzzard head I'm a-ridin to stand on one leg as coax that nigger to mossy outside the flare o' the campfire after sundown for a pail o' water or fer any other pu'pos, fer the matter o' that. You see, he was a 'pilgrim'—never been on a layout of this sort afore, an he was that blamed tender a goat would nibble him.

"But, I b'leve, to talk Christian, I was partly responsible for his bein so extray-ordinary skittish. He sta'ted oncet or twicet fer water after night to a crick quite handy, sho'tly after we went into camp. I jest stepped off 15 paces into the pines an let a 'yee-ow' or two out of me, an Jumbo, he throwed back his ears an yelled—tee-riffic, I tell you—an come prancin up to the campfire—jest techin high spots, you understand—with his two sighters stickin out like the knobs on the horns of a ornery freight og, shakin like a sick cow in a north wind, an dern a pail in sight.

"After that a Quaker meetin ner a cyclone wouldn't budge him, an if you asked him to put a tree between him an the blaas, after dark he'd weep like a wolf. An that woman! No—she didn't laugh—no—oh, no!" And Jim lay back, his saddle and sent a peal echoing up among the foothills which shook the lingering traces of soft snow from the branches of the spruces.

That Jim was a "n. e. skinner" does not imply that he was a skinner at removing hides—in toto. Sift at removing to that select bun that he beagred to that superlative of frontiers-the-whose superlative of frontiers-the-whose drive or ride "at is that wears, drive or ride "at is that in the cr."—that he was palin that He adju't teamsterism. master gave a forwal the pistols in. buckskin hat ailt to his broad belt, leather "chaps," hitch to his fed jingling Mexican spurs, against his use's flanks before result.

"But I was a-goin to be you 'bout fer England. Mis' Li'l'field. She was a 'righty fine' woman, as I said before, an we put up—fond of out of door sport an of 'idin in partic'lar. Well, one bright, warm mornin Li'l'field an Wells went off huntin, an I got orders (I was teamster an guide to the outfit, you know) to move camp across the 'divide'—about 20 mile—in the meantime. So, after breakfast an the dishes hed been wiped, we packed up the outfit an struck camp, but it was well on in the day before we pulled out.

"Now, Mis' Li'l'field hed a spankin bay hoss specially fer her own use. I hedn't no objections to her ridin, of co'se, not commonly. But you know it ain't jest nice to be rollin down a blamed co'skew mount'in trail after dark an gettin into camp late an hev in to plant yer tents an square things out, cut yer kindlin an git yer water by cat light an wait till 9 o'clock, mebbe, fer yer supper. This was what hed happened different times through Mis' Li'l'field. She allers wanted to 'ride' when we shifted camp an folloed the wagon on her bay hoss. It was unde'stood that when I was goin too fast or hed got too fur in the lead she would wave her handkercher, an I was to slack up or stop till she ketcht the wagon. So I jest natterly loved I'd give her a song an dance, hev in a pretty smart day ahead o' me an wantin to git into camp early. Consequently I told the nigger—who rode with me—not to look back.

"When we sta'ted, of co'se the fust ten mile or so was up hill mostly, an I couldn't travel extra fast, so it was 'bout 2 when we hit the summit, an everything hed went lovely. Then we hed a little 'hand out,' an the descent begun.

"I didn't lose no time. The mules stepped out gay' me a-poppin the buckskin among 'em oncet an awhile jest to keep 'em chee'ful an in good humor, an the hill—well, chain lightning could go down—with britchin. I hedn't went a great ways when I heerd a fur off call—like a coyote got astray. Jumbo shifted kind of uneasylike on the seat an squinted sideways at me, but I was a-whistlin 'The Gal With the Travail Train,' an didn't see nor hear nothin, of co'se. Pretty soon the nigger he couldn't set peaceful an unconcerned no longer an stealed a look behin. Then he leaned forrard, 'th his han's 'tween his knees, an chucked to hisself. I paid no manner of notice. Now he screws round again in his seat, chuckles, an twists a little harder, squints at me sideways again, an says:

"'She's a-wavin, Jim.'"
"Set still, you blamed black breasted sundpiper," says I. 'Let 'er wave.'"
"He was tol'abul quiet fer a sho't space, while you might cut a pipe of terbacker, mebbe. The calls sounded pretty faint now. Far back up the rocky trail I could ketch the clear, sharp ring of her hoss's hoofs—pit-e-pat! pit-e-pat! pit-e-pat!—remindin me somethin of one of them gals from the east down in Benton chassayin up an down the room in a newfangled waltance they call the 'Rushin Polkay.'"

"Jumbo's head swung around again on its pivot. He squirmed an twisted an chuckled some more. The fun was too fast fer his ornery, woolly scalp, an he bu't out:

"'Dah! she waves, Jim. Now—now! she waves. Dah—dah! she's a-wavin. Now—now! she's a-wavin, Jim. Now! she waves. Jim—Jim—Jim!—she waves. Jim—she waves!—she waves!—she waves!'"
"Here he throwed out his wings—undulatinlike an very takin an winds up in a loud 'Yah, yah, yah!'—doublin hisself up an contortin an rollin round on the seat till I thought he'd drop out o' the wagon. He was the most extropulous coon I ever see—that's right! I tried to kick him under the seat, but fact is, I was a-laughin at him till I was high non campus Memphis myself.

"'Pit-e-pat! Pit-e-pat! Pit-e-pat!'" come from far back in the distance.
"Now I commenced to pull in my mules. We were gittin pretty well down the slope an a few mile more would fetch us to the camp ground. (I hed changed 'The Gal With the Travail Train' fer 'The Gal I Left Behin Me.') It was still middlin early in the afternoon an mighty hot. After awhile I got my team down to a walk an before long I heerd the hoss' hoofs comin closter.

"I turned around an watched her as she come up. Say! I've eat canned lobsters an heerd talk of spanked babies—but you'd oughter seen that woman's face! *** Whoosh! To sta't a fire fer the pu'pose o' toastin a bannack while she wer' round an that color lasted, as the poet says, 'wer' unnecessary.' But that wa'n't all, neither. She was mad clean through—as a sage hen with a brood of young uns; it stuck out in pints all over her. An you could see where the tears hed left marks on her cheeks, through the dust, an her hair was like a shower bath on her shoulders.

"'How could you be so mean, Jim,' she says.

"'Well—you see, mum—er—this here—ah—blamed hill is so confounded ornery pu'pendic'lar—uh—I couldn't hold 'em up—'pon honor I couldn't!'"
"Of co'se I guess she didn't b'leve me ha'dly, but what could she say? We traveled pretty slow the rest of the road to camp. I did feel tarnation mean, as well as sorry fer her, an that's right! I wanted to kick myself, to make myself feel—er—ah—uncomfortable. I hed half a mind to make Jumbo do it. But, then, he was a nigger, an didn't know nothin.

"Well, Li'l'field got his leg broke sho'tly after an that bu't up the expedition—got into a wrestle with a grizzly an took second money. He left his hoss an went close to git a good pull, but the bear was only wounded an charged. He waltzed with him. I reckon it 'ud 'a been all day with Li'l'field if Wells hedn't been nigh. He was a dead shot, you know. As it was, he got out of it with a broken thigh an a gash in his hip from the bear's claw you might cache a flask in. So as soon as he could be moved, we went into Helena an they

Chances of a Lifetime.

"It is said," he remarked, reflectively, "that women's hands are growing larger." "Yes?" she returned, inquiringly. "Yes," he asserted. "And the worst of it is that there is every likelihood that this tendency will continue." "Yes?" she said, in the same inquiring tone. "Yes," he repeated. "You see, the bicycle and golf and tennis and other sports that women have recently taken up are responsible for it." "In that case," she said, with a glance at her own dainty hands, "you'd better speak quick if you want a small one." He realized that it was the opportunity of a lifetime and he spoke promptly. —Chicago Post.
